DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to the Amendment filed on February 28, 2005.

Claims 1, 8, and 9 were amended; claim 7 were cancelled; and claim 33 was added.

On Page 6 of the previous Office Action mailed on November 26, 2004, in the second paragraph there has been a typo error. The second paragraph is corrected as following:

-- Claims 1 and 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rosen (Pub. Number US 2004/0035117 A1), in view of Mackay (Patent Number 6,606,864 B2)--

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6, 8-29, and 33 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the cited prior art alone or in combination teaches or renders obvious the claimed combination of a system for generating electrical power for supply to a load including:

" Regarding claim 1:

the auxiliary generator/motor in the motor mode being operable to receive electrical power from the main generator and convert the electrical power into mechanical power that is injected into the spool to which the auxiliary generator /motor is coupled.

Regarding claim 8:

a sensor operable to measure a variable indicative of combustor inlet temperature, and where the controller is connected to said sensor and is operable to control air flow through the first spool in such a manner to maintain the combustor inlet temperature above a predetermined minimum temperature required for catalytic operation.

Regarding claim 17:

See the previous office action mailed on November 26, 2004.

Regarding claim 33:

the controller being operable to select mode in which the auxiliary generator/motor operates and to control the auxiliary generator/motor in the selected mode so as to affect an operating condition of the gas turbine engine."

Conclusion

The IDS (PTO-1449) filed on February 22, 2005 has been considered. An initialized copy is attached hereto.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
